

FOODWAYS TEXAS is an organization founded by scholars, chefs, journalists, restaurateurs, farmers, ranchers, and other citizens of the state of Texas who have made it their mission to preserve, promote and celebrate the diverse food cultures of Texas. By joining and supporting Foodways Texas, you become part of a movement to preserve the vibrant foodways of Texas through oral history projects, documentary films, recipe collections, and scholarly research. You will join us in highlighting the state's distinctive foods and food cultures at our annual scholarly symposium, supporting educational food-based seminars, promoting local food networks, and partnering with universities and other non-profit organizations to educate future generations about healthy and sustainable food practices.

Membership is available at the following rates and levels:

- $25 students
 - $75 individuals
 - $100 families
 - $200 non-profit institutions/artisans
 - $500 corporations*
- * Event benefits extend to all employees of the corporation*
